CHICAGO WILL BE PERMANENT HEADQUARTERS ELKS' LODGE; PLAN FOR $2,500.00 HOME

Structure Will Be Memorial To Members Who Gave Lives In World War; Redondo Beach Entertains Delegates And Families Today

The Glendale Elks kept open house all day Sunday and entertained over 450 visitors. Many of the visiting Elks were motoring through the city on their way to the beaches from Pasadena and were glad to stop and be welcomed by their Glendale brothers. This afternoon a concert is being held at headquarters at 605 South Grand avenue in Los Angeles.

Chicago will probably be permanent national headquarters for the B. P. O. E.

This was the announcement today in Los Angeles of John K. Tener, former governor of Pennsylvania and head of the committee on establishment of national headquarters.

A report recommending Chicago will be submitted to Grand Exalted Ruler William R. Abbott tomorrow, Tener said. The Illinois metropolis was selected for the new $2,500.00 building after the committee had visited Washington, Columbus, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Duquesne, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Denver, Louisville and Omaha. The building will be a memorial to the more than 1000 members who died in the world war.

Members of the headquarters committee who will sign the Tener report are Joseph T. Fanning of New York, James R. Nicholson of Boston, Edward Righter of New Orleans, Mayor Frederick Harper of Lynchburg, Va., and Bruce A. Campbell of East St. Louis.

No Meeting Tonight
The usual Monday night meeting of the local lodge of Elks will not be held this evening on account of the national convention now being held at Los Angeles. Most of the local brothers spent the day at Redondo, which was the official guest of the visitors today. Tuesday night a spectacular electrical parade is scheduled to take place in Los Angeles, which will be attended largely by Glendale members.

Glendale has taken on a gala appearance. Practically all of the stores and buildings have been gorgeously decorated in honor of the occasion. Purple and white festoons and bunting radiate a welcome to "Brother Bill" from every doorway, while interspersed among the bright colors may be found the triangular pennants containing the famous dial with the Elks' head in the center.

They Drank Lemonade
Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Schenck of 1143 East Elk avenue, Glendale, spent Sunday at Universal City, where the management was entertaining the Elks. More than 2800 motorcars visited the city during the day, the visitors coming by thousands to watch the production of a picture in all its detail.

Mr. Schenck says that the management furnished ten barrels of lemonade to their guests but that the crowd was so great it had all disappeared within half an hour.

Letter from Harding
William M. Abbott, Grand Exalted Ruler, is in receipt of a letter from President Harding, who is a member of the Elks, in which the president sends greeting to his brother mem-

GIVES RECEIPT FOR CATCHING FISH IN HOT WEATHER

J. S. Thompson Returns From Big Bear Outing With the Season's Prize Story

J. S. Thompson of 400 West Broadway, returned today from a week's trip to Big Bear with a fish tale that wins first prize for the season. Thompson reports that it was hot at the mountain resort; in fact, so hot that even the fish refused to bite.

The most tantalizing morsels of bait were passed up by the usually voracious Mr. Trout with but a languid glance of inspection, while the more delicate Mrs. Trout refused to grant the perspiring himrods even this slight show of interest.

Nary a nibble was secured until one of the members of the party became the proud possessor of a happy thought and decided to try out a piece of ice as bait.

Will Produce Evidence
The result was immediately apparent. So eager were the finny dwellers of the lake for the cooling bait that in many instances, so it is reported, two, and even three, fish were pulled out on the same spoon.

If you don't believe this yarn, Thompson says he will show a picture of that day's catch as evidence.

With Mr. Thompson on the trip, was his wife, Mrs. Hattie Thompson, and their two boys, Harold and Russell. John Smith, who recently purchased the former Thompson home at 445 West Broadway, accompanied the Thompsons to Big Bear, as also did Vernon Carr, a former resident of Glendale who is now residing at Covina.

In addition to encountering an excessive heat wave while on their vacation, a summer thunder shower added to the joy of life.

Mrs. J. McLain Is Back From Trip to Portland

Mrs. J. McLain of 1135 East California street has returned from a month visit to Portland. Mrs. McLain, who suffered a breakdown some time ago, is much improved in health as a result of her trip, but says she is very glad to get back to "Sunny Glendale." It rained practically all of the time that she was in Oregon.

Mrs. John Ireland Loses Valuable Pin

Mrs. John Ireland of 367 North Maryland suffered a misfortune Saturday afternoon when she lost a very valuable pin while shopping in Glendale. The pin was a gold bar with a square ruby surrounded with diamonds. She discovered her loss as she arrived at home and is hoping some Glendale citizen picked it up as it is of great personal value to her.

Mrs. Maggie Mix Here for Visit With Friend

Mrs. Maggie Mix of Greenville, Texas, is visiting Mrs. Allie Anderson at the latter's home at 1125 East California street. Mrs. Mix will remain in Glendale for several weeks, and upon her return to Texas will attempt to induce her two sons, who are in business there, to transfer their interests to Glendale.

TWO BANDITS HALT RANCHER AND ROB HIM OF $15

A. L. Goldenberg Is Held Up at Pistol Point While Driving His Truck

While returning home from work in Los Angeles Saturday night A. L. Goldenberg, rancher of La Crescenta, reports that two young men jumped aboard his Ford truck and, covering him with a revolver, commanded him to stop the machine.

After bringing the truck to a stop Goldenberg was told to step down on the road and throw up his hands. He was then searched by one of the holdup men, who took $15 in cash, which happened to be all the victim had on him. A watch and several other articles of value were not touched.

No Trace Is Found
The affair took place at the top of the little hill on Verdugo road just west of the Beatty oil field, a few minutes after 9 o'clock. The truck was only traveling about twelve miles an hour at the time, the bandits apparently being familiar with the contour of the road at that point.

Local police authorities were immediately summoned to the scene, but no trace of the thieves could be found.

The year's total now stands at $2,031,074, or practically twice the amount registered at this time last year.

With her present teacher, Miss Lillian Backstrand of the College of Music at U. S. C., she will leave about September 1 to take up her course of study in New York.

Miss Mottern is very happy over this opportunity to be trained by one who has earned a nation-wide reputation.

Tuesday night Miss Mottern sings the principal numbers on a program given by the Junior Musical Club of Glendale. She will sing two groups of Charles Wakefield Cadman's songs with the composer himself at the piano. The musical will be held at the home of Miss Veda Knapp, 214 West Chestnut street.

Today's World News In Brief

(By United Press to Glendale Evening News)

HARDING WILL PERSONALLY READ CONGRESS MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, July 11.—President Harding will personally read to congress this week his message urging haste in enacting taxation and tariff legislation, it was learned on high authority today. The message is expected to call for laying aside the soldier bonus and the hastening of taxation and tariff legislation for which the present special session was called. Harding, senators expect, will ask co-operation for the national good and urge that personal aims be subordinated.

VIOLENCE CONTINUES IN NORTH OF IRELAND TODAY

BELFAST, July 11.—Violence and disorder continued in the north of Ireland up to the very hour the truce went into effect at noon today. The morning mail train en route from Belfast to Londonderry was derailed near Carrickmore, in Tyrone. The crew was held up and six cars burned. The rioting in Belfast, which broke out Saturday night and continued until suppressed by the military last night, was renewed this morning. There were sporadic outbursts in various parts of the city which continued until nearly noon. In one melee a bread wagon was burned, its driver beaten. In addition to the fourteen persons killed and 105 injured, it was stated that 200 were rendered homeless by fires.

PROBE FLYING ACCIDENT THAT TOOK FIVE LIVES

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 11.—Army officials from Washington and Dayton, Ohio, flying field were en route here today to conduct an official investigation into an airplane accident yesterday which took a toll of five lives, injured more than a score and destroyed sixteen automobiles. The accident occurred when a giant Martin bombing plane taking off from the local field, plunged into a line of automobiles. One of the gasoline tanks of the bomber exploded, spreading fire over the cars. Most of the dead and injured were caught in the burning machines. Lieutenant N. C. MacIver and Lieutenant E. H. Dunton were in the airplane. They escaped with slight injuries.

TRUCE IN IRELAND IS WELCOMED WITH GREAT NOISE

DUBLIN, July 11.—As the clocks of Dublin struck the hour of noon today, the sound of their bells was drowned in the roar of ship sirens that welcomed the truce between the British forces and the Sinn Feiners. Citizens gathered excitedly on the corners. Shortly after 12 o'clock, when the armistice became effective, a group of unarmed black and tans strolled from the barracks. In a few moments they were fraternizing with the people, talking eagerly about the prospects of permanent peace. The soldiers, long conspicuous figures in the streets, disappeared today and in the places of the sentries with fixed bayonets, peaceful-looking policemen paced their beats.

DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON ASSURED

WASHINGTON, July 11.—A disarmament conference in Washington was regarded as certain today. Following the informal query to the great powers, asking whether they would be willing to enter into such a conference, Secretary Hughes was preparing the official invitations in order to be ready to dispatch them upon receipt of word that they are acceptable. Great Britain and Japan, through public statements of their government leaders, have already bound themselves to join in a disarmament conference if the United States should call it. Public opinion in France and Italy will not allow leaders of those nations to refuse the invitation even if they should regard it unfavorably, it is believed here. China, whose friendliness to this country has been many times emphasized, will certainly accept, it is thought. China will participate in Far Eastern discussions. One of the fundamental factors back of this decision to call the conference is that by this step the administration has virtually begun the framework of its promised association of nations to prevent war. The open door policy of China, valiantly fought for by Hughes, must be definitely agreed upon at the conference. Other Pacific questions which might prove obstacles to disarmament, such as Japan's mandate over Yap, also must be smoothed out.

Unique Decoration in Honor of Elks at Roberts & Echols

A novel and unique decoration is the large Elk emblem that Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts of 312 Myrtle street built in honor of the Elks' convention now being held in Los Angeles. Mr. Roberts, who is a member of the firm of Roberts & Echols, druggists, has the emblem hanging in front of the store at Broadway and Brand boulevard.

A huge dial artistically surrounded by purple and white bunting is the theme worked out by Mrs. Roberts upon a background of wire netting twelve feet square. Naturally, the hands of the clock point to the hour of 11 o'clock. In the center of the dial is a large buff-colored Elk's head.

The display is constructed the same on both sides and is hung at an oblique angle so that it can be seen from all directions. The decoration is unusually striking and Mr. Roberts is receiving many congratulations today.

Little Jackie Coogan Operated Upon Here

Little Jackie Coogan, the child actor who is known and loved by all moving picture fans, underwent an operation at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital this morning. A late report states that he is doing very nicely and will not be confined long.

Girl, Special Deputy, Arrests Trio of Men for Automobile Theft

Miss Marie Trapani, bookkeeper and stenographer in the city clerk's office at Burbank, holds the record of being the first Burbank woman to make an arrest. The event recently took place in that city one day after Miss Trapani had been sworn in by the city marshal as a special deputy.

To prove that she wasn't afraid of men and that the marshal had not wasted his time in deputizing her the youthful officer boldly stepped out in front of a machine and demanded a halt.

The car, in which were three men, immediately slowed up and Miss Trapani hopped on the running board and, showing the men her star, placed them under arrest.

The alleged lawbreakers were then held in a garage until a male officer arrived.

As Miss Trapani had surmised the machine was one that had been stolen from San Fernando a few hours before, and the thieves were at once taken into custody.

FAMILY PARTY

A very proud as well as happy family party was recently held at the home of Mrs. M. F. Foster, 236 North Louise, in honor of her father, Schlein Lorenz, who just recently celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday. Mr. Lorenz is in Glendale for his third visit and expects to remain here.

NEW CITY OFFICERS TO BE GUESTS OF C. C. DIRECTORS

Inspection of Reservoir to Take Place and Then Comes Big Banquet

Arrangements have been completed for the big get-together meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon by the directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and the newly-elected city officials.

A tour of inspection of the newly completed storage reservoir, which is now in the course of completion in the Verdugo canyon, will be made at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, autos being furnished for this purpose by the members of the Chamber of Commerce.

The new reservoir, which was been constructed on a size sufficient to supply the increased demands of Glendale for many years to come has a storage capacity of 7,000,000 gallons.

Banquet to Follow

After inspecting the new water supply the party will return to the White Inn, where a sumptuous banquet will be waiting. No set speeches have been prepared for this occasion, it being the intention of those having the matter in charge to give those interested an opportunity of informally discussing the needs of the city. President C. C. Cooper of the Chamber of Commerce will act as toastmaster of the occasion and Spencer Robinson, Glendale's first mayor, will respond in behalf of the city officials.

Present with the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the city officers will be the newly-formed Ladies' Advisory Board of the Chamber of Commerce. This board has been formed for the purpose of co-operating in all matters regarding civic affairs of the city, and in particular, to those matters pertaining to women's activities. The members of this board are: Mrs. Ella Richardson, Dr. Jessie Russell, Mrs. Margaret Tight, Mrs. Lizzie Hayward, Mrs. Margaret Biggs and Mrs. Caroline P. Jackson.

Members Are Invited

All the members of the Chamber of Commerce are invited to attend the banquet, but those desiring seats should communicate with James Rhoades, secretary, in order that reservations may be made. The dinner will be $1 a plate.

"There is absolutely no political significance to this banquet by reason of the fact that the city officials are our guests," stated Secretary Rhoades today. "This gathering has been called for the sole and only purpose of boosting our home town and the one object of discussion will be 'A Greater Glendale.'"

BLINDNESS IS TOPIC OF ADDRESS BY DR. C. M. CRIST

Many Glendale People Are Blind---Blind to Christ,
Declares Minister

The communion service at the First Methodist church on Sunday morning was followed by a short address by Dr. C. M. Crist, the pastor, on "God's Garden."

The program at night consisted of special organ numbers by Mrs. M. S.
Ruehny, a cornet solo by Dr. P. S.
Guess, and a male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Kuehny, Butterfield, Clark and Haines, which rendered a selection composed by Gabriel.

"Blind Bartimaeus" was the topic chosen by Dr. Crist for his evening sermon. Text, Mark 10:46.
"And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, Blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging."

"This interesting narrative in the life of Christ," said Dr. Crist, "occurs just after he had revealed to his disciples his impending fate. The false accusation, the betrayal, the crucifixion, and no doubt but the disciples felt unusually drawn to him.
A great multitude was attracted his way. It was a very noticeable part of Christ's ministry that he always had an interested audience. Several reasons account for this: He spoke words of wisdom, never man spoke as this. Then his sympathetic ministry had attracted, the fame of his miracles had spread and physical benefits have always been a great drawing power.

Divine Element Drew

This last has been true in all ages and we are now having an example of it in Los Angeles.

"But strange it is that the healing of the soul, which so far transcends the curing of bodily ills, does not excite equal or greater interest.
Then, Christ's personality was a magnet. The divine element irresistibly drew. So, today, when Christ is presented as the sympathetic physician and savior he attracts. Let us look at some of Bartimaeus' traits.
His eagerness to be healed. He heard a commotion and inquired the cause and was told that Christ was passing by. He raised a cry, and Jesus, in his sympathy, heard just as he does today. The crowd tries to silence the blind man but he cried out the more. Then Jesus called him. He came running, throwing his garment aside. Jesus spoke the word and immediately his sight came.

Plenty of "Blind" People

"The blind man represents spiritual blindness. Blind men and women travel daily through the streets of Glendale and their need is great.
But we have a savior sufficient to give sight to all. He has the same ability today he had then, but as the blind man's friends would have hindered him then, so sometimes mistaken friends would hinder today.
But Bartimaeus persisted and how fortunate he did, for this was the last time that Christ passed that way.

"We should be more earnest in leading blind men to the light of the world, Jesus. A friendly word brought Moody, as a boy, to Christ.
This is also true of Hadley, Dr. Chapman and many others singularly useful in helping men. Three elements combined to give sight to Bartimaeus. Christ, his friends and himself."

Dr. Crist closed his earnest gospel address with an invitation to his audience to seek Christ.

L. P. Tronsier Opens His New Barber Shop

L. P. Tronsier, who was forced to vacate his former business location at 109-A East Broadway, to make room for the new Glendale state bank, has opened his new barber shop at 117 East Broadway.

The new tonsorial parlor is thoroughly modern in every respect, and has all of the latest and up-to-date equipment. Four chairs have been installed for the convenience of his patrons and the place will be scientifically ventilated by a new cooling system.

F. J. Willett, who formerly conducted a cigar stand in front of Tron-sier's former shop, has also moved into the new building with a first-class line of cigars and tobaccos.

AIR OF REMARKABLE PURITY

The air is so pure in Arequipa, Peru, that from the observatory at that place, 8050 feet above the sea, a black spot, one inch in diameter, placed on a wide disc, has been seen a distance of eleven miles through a thirteen-inch telescope.

THE CAVE WOMAN

Scientists say that the cave woman was the equal of the cave man in the use of a club. And she was probably more than his equal in the accompanying argument.

Following the injury of eight freshmen and sophomores who were cut and burned recently in a class battle involving about 1000 students, all forms of hazing have been abolished by the student body of the University of Wisconsin.

Seventy-three hundred locomotives are now in the service of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Supreme Confidence in Jesus Is World Need, Asserts Pastor

By REV. C. M. CALDERWOOD,
Pastor Congregational Church

"For God sent not His son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved."
John 3:17.

The deity of Christ is not a matter of interest among sociologists.
Modern men say they are not interested in the deity of Christ as a metaphysical question. The phrase is used by many cranks as a shib-boleth to pound men into ortho-doxy.

But suppose we take the matter of the deity of Jesus Christ out of the realm of metaphysical speculation and put it into the realm of religion. Let us do this by asking men if they really believe that Jesus is able to save the world. Christ's program was not rescue—it was salvation. There is great difference between rescuing people and saving them. Jesus rescued a few people but he has saved millions. He does not want the world to go to hell in order that he may rescue it.

Declared Foolishness

God sent Jesus into the world to save it. Why should so many people want the world to be damned in order that we may have a dramatic rescue by Jesus? Many people believe only in the rescuing power of Jesus. They have no confidence in his power beyond that. For them, salvation is hopeless, even for Jesus.
God must first destroy society before Jesus can establish a new order. I submit that this foolishness, which is so common around Los Angeles, is to doubt the deity of Christ.

The great force of the world is not brute force, but spiritual power.
Mind is superior to matter. It has been so with individuals and with society and it is true with the world.
A new world, a new social order comes with a new birth of spiritual values. Then why talk about world disaster as a necessity for the appearance of Christ?

Christ does not come on the wings of evil, but bearing peace, joy and righteousness. World salvation does not come by world catastrophe, but by world regeneration. The only genuine salvation possible is a spiritual regeneration. This is the heart of the gospel. It is necessary for individuals and it is necessary for society.

If a man believes that the gospel of Jesus is capable of producing this spiritual change in human affairs, he has effectively stated his belief not only in God, but in God personally revealed in Jesus. He may be confused about the metaphysics and formulas drawn up by men ages ago, but he trusts in the power of Jesus.

This is the sort of evangelism that the world needs—a supreme confidence in Jesus as the one through whom God is actually at work in the world. Let us show our faith in Jesus Christ not by shouting formulas about His deity, but by a trust in His redeeming and regenerating power and by following His program of social salvation.

GIVE ELK VISITORS
REAL INVITATION
TO VISIT HERE

Burton & Chandler's Office Is Prepared to Greet Southland's Guests

An invitation has been extended to the visiting Elks and their families by Burton & Chandler, one of Glendale's real estate firms, to make themselves at home at the offices of the local company.

The office at 133 Sotuh Brand boulevard has been beautifully decorated with purple and white festoon, the official colors of the B. P. O. E. Rest rooms, writing desks and stationery will all be provided for the visitors.

They also plan to make it an information headquarters and see that those visiting Glendale for the first time are given all the information possible in regard to the beauties and advantages of Glendale.

In line with this policy they have had printed purple and white dogtags describing the salient points of Glendale, which they intend to distribute, not only to the Elks who visit here, but also to those stopping in Los Angeles.

Plenty of Reasons

After calling attention to the fact that the population of Glendale has increased from 2,700 in 1910 to 20,000 in 1921, give the following reasons:

- A city with broad boulevards.
- A city well lighted.
- A city with excellent churches and schools.
- A city with individuality, and within a stone's throw of Los Angeles.
- A city with 295 trains, interurban and steam, in and out daily.
- A city with the best water in southern California.
- A city with low taxation—and a hundred and one other reasons.

"WHY."

24-Ounce Loaf of Bread for 10 Cents

What should be good news to the people is the announcement of the Bread Box, which is located in the Sam Seelig market, that beginning today the price of their buttermilk bread will be 10 cents per 24 ounce loaf. Although only being in business two weeks the Bread Box has made quite a reputation on their bread and in speaking to Mr. Ahrens, who is manager, he said the same good bread will prevail, but in keeping with the falling of all food prices it is only fair that the price of bread should also be reduced.

LIGHT UP! PLEA OF
REV. EDMONDS IN SUNDAY TALK

Ten Virgins and Their Lamps
Used as Basis for Talk, Presbyterian Church

At the Presbyterian church yesterday the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, preached from a sentence in the parable about the ten virgins and their lamps: "And five were foolish," or, literally, "stupid." (Matt. 25-2). A resume follows:

"In certain parts of China, when one becomes a Christian he is no longer expected to pay the heathen temple tax; but he has to prove that he is a Christian. How would it work in this country? The churches would be thronged with those coming to prove exemption. There was a young man in New York who said to his wife, 'I have today decided to become a Christian. Tonight we will have in the servants, and I will announce it.' 'But we are to have guests; go into the kitchen to the servants.' 'No, I have decided to give my best; the servants shall come in, and friends and all.' He did it all. This man was afterward Judge McLean, for forty years an honor to the bench. He was true to his profession of Christ before everything. There is need everywhere now that men should stand out in the open.

"In this parable about the ten virgins, these five were called stupid. Why, and not the other five? They all looked alike, dressed alike, were going the same way; and they all slumbered while waiting. Yet there was a tremendously important difference. And crisis came and divided them. Everywhere it is thus; everywhere there are the five foolish ones. Now all those ten looked the same; all of you look alike; all look as believers on the Lord. When the test comes, it automatically divides. Those all had lamps, had invitations, all had dressed and were going. But when the midnight call of the bridegroom came, the five foolish ones had no oil in their lamps. God has placed you in this world to be a lamp-stand. If you have a lamp but have hidden it under a bushel you are responsible. Having a lamp carries responsibility. Do you tell me you have a light, and don't use it for your dying brother?

Cites Three Reasons

"There are three reasons why you should light up. First, for your own interest. People sometimes say or feel that they should come into the church for its good. But you should do it rather for your own good. You should acknowledge those things which you believe. Men are looking out for their advantage in the business world, step by step to the top. You should do likewise in the things of the soul. Somebody says, 'But there are people in the church I don't like.' Men don't refuse to drink water because water drowns people; or to take money because there are counterfeiters; and it is no excuse to say that there are impostors in the ranks. Oh, let your light shine—light up!

"Second, not only for your own good, but for the good of others. Influence is the most sacred thing you possess. 'Am I my brother's keeper?' You most certainly are! You don't have to exert influence, oh, no! It works automatically. You can't get away from it. It doesn't ask to be exerted.

Light Up for God
"Third, you ought to light up for God, because it is only fair to Christ. You owe it to Him. Some of these days you want Him to stand up for you at the judgment. If you don't confess Me down here, what do you expect I am going to do with you up there?"

"Now, why don't the five wise ones share of their oil? Those who have salvation can't give part of it. All they can do is to tell where to get it. Salvation cannot be divided out; everyone must get their own; possess it yourself or go without. You can't get in on another's religion.

"At midnight a cry went up: 'The bridegroom came, the ready ones went in, and the door was shut. You can't get the oil at midnight. At that moment is not when anything can be done. This is the day to get right with God. Do you not realize today that you are a week nearer the end, there is one week less time? If He should come this day, may it be given to you to go out and meet the bridegroom, may it not be said of you, 'Five were foolish.'"

OUTSTRETCHED HAND AGAIN
Walters in Germany have backslid from the proud standards of democracy they adopted two years ago in the enthusiasm of their first republic. They no longer declare that it is beneath the dignity of one citizen to accept a tip from another citizen, and that the indignity must be avoided by abolishing tips and adding a "service" charge of 10 per cent to each hotel and restaurant bill. No longer was there to be an outstretched hand in Germany. For a short time the outstretched hand had actually disappeared; then it discreetly returned; then it pushed itself a little to the front, and now shamelessly it flourishes itself in each patron's face. The "service" charge is still added to each bill nevertheless, and is found necessary, just as it used to be, if service is expected.

Robert Town and his chum, Harold Cummings, left this morning for Santa Anita canyon to work for the forest service in making trails. After ten days they will go up to Buckhorn, thirty-five miles back from Sierra Madre and 6500 feet high. They will work throughout July and most of August and are looking forward to six weeks of strenuous labor mixed with real pleasure.

R. T. W. Class Will Have Tujungia Outing

The R. T. W. class of the First Baptist church will hold a picnic at Brookside park Tuesday instead of the one planned at Tujungia. The ladies will meet at the church at 11 o'clock and drive over. Mrs. A. J. Maxwell is chairman of the committee in charge of the affair.

AN OUTLAWED BILL

The man on the downtown car was holding on by a strap and trying to read a few paragraphs in his paper. One of them told of a discovery by a Nipper expedition of one of our universities of a well preserved and thoroughly authenticated tailor's bill nearly 5000 years old.

Since the man who was holding on to the next strap was himself engaged in the clothing business, the man with the newspaper thought the item would interest him, so he read it aloud. The story, however, left the listener with a blank glow on his face.

"Don't you understand?" said the other, impatiently. "It's a tailor's bill almost 5000 years old."
"Well," said the tailor, without excitement, "what is it good for? They can't collect it."

BURBANK SQUAD IS DEFEATED, 3 TO 7,
BY LINCOLNS

Game Is Played on Glendale Grounds; Roy Hevle in the Box Proves a Feature

The Lincoln Heights baseball team yesterday trounced the Burbank Athletic club, 7 to 3, in a regular San Fernando Valley league game. On account of the Glendale Elks' team enjoying a lay-off for the day the game was played on the local grounds, on Park avenue.

The feature of the contest was the invincible pitching of Roy Hevle for the winners. The "iron man" held his opponents safe at all times, keeping their six hits scattered throughout the nine innings. Only one run was earned off his delivery.

The Lincoln Heights players were on a batting spree all afternoon, bumping Lewis, the Burbank chucker, for a total of fourteen safeties. Their onslaught was led by "Babe" Roletti, the fleet-footed visitors' outfielder, who lined out two doubles and a pair of singles in four trips to the plate.

Standing Is Changed

The result of yesterday's game reverses the two teams' standing in the percentage column, putting Lincoln Heights in third place with .571 and Burbank a notch below with an even .500 record. This is the mark held by the team when it took the Glendale Elks' place in the league several weeks ago:
Lincoln Heights7 14 1
Burbank A. C.3 6 2

BOND ELECTION FOR $60,000 CALLED AT EAGLE ROCK

Civic Improvements to Be Sought; Tujunga Women's Club Favors Mission

At the last regular meeting of the city trustees of Eagle Rock it was decided to call a $60,000 bond election for civic improvements in the near future. Of this sum $35,000 will be for the erection of a city hall building, and the remaining $25,000 for the purchasing of a park site. The citizens of this neighboring city are taking unusual interest in the coming bond election, which promises to be one of the liveliest affairs in the history of that community.

In Favor of Mission

The Women's Club of Tujunga and Monte Vista valley went on record at their last meeting as being in favor of the erection of California's twenty-second mission on the property now known as Manzanita park. Their action was taken as "an honor to their esteemed friend and neighbor, John Steven McGroarty," and "to further the best interests of Tujunga and Monte Vista valley."

Favor Lighting District

The street lighting committee of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce reported last week that a petition for the formation of a lighting district had been filed at the county supervisor's office. The matter will come up for consideration in the near future.

Building Three Bridges

Work on the three bridges now being constructed over the Big Tujunga Wash between Sunland and San Fernando is reported to be progressing rapidly, and they are expected to be completed in the near future.

Wilson & Lemuels Are New Owners of Station

Wilson & Lemuels from Pennsylvania have purchased the gas station at South Louise and Colorado and adopted the progressive slogan of "service" as a means of appealing to the motorists of Glendale. Mr. Wilson has had a varied experience in the oil wells of Pennsylvania and one of the immediate improvements to be inaugurated is another gasoline pump with an additional popular gasoline to facilitate service.

The new concern will specialize on greasing and washing and are to furnish a high grade of oils at reduced rates. Free air, water for radiators, tire inspection and draining of crank cases is a part of the gratis service to be introduced. Both members of the firm will locate permanently in Glendale as soon as they can secure housing facilities.

Miss Bernie Morehouse Gives Birthday Dinner

Miss Bernie Morehouse of 1000 East Lomita avenue was hostess Saturday night to a small group of friends at an exquisitely appointed dinner party in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. Glenn A. Widmark of this city. The house was beautifully decorated with a nice combination of red carnations and red favors.

After the guests had been served with a delicious dinner which consisted of a three-course affair and the usual birthday cake, the evening was enjoyed in music and visiting. Those who attended the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Widmark and son, Glenn, Jr., Professor and Mrs. J. E. Moore of Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Enner of Hollywood.

ANSWERED

For reasons of economy a certain dowager had to part with her butler, relates an English exchange. She gave him a cordial reference to a prospective employer. A few days later she was annoyed to get a catechism of questions from this lady, "Was he courteous, gentlemanly, honest, and of distinguished appearance?" To which she replied: "The Dowager Lady Blank wishes to say that if her butler owned half the virtues enumerated she would have married him herself years ago."

THAT PART EASILY ARRANGED

"Where would you go if the landlord doubled the rent?" asks an advertiser. "We can't say offhand, but we do know where the landlord could go!"

Reports New Industry

The city of Van Nuys reports the recent establishment of a new business in its community—that of growing asters for the Los Angeles floral trade. The two owners of the new enterprise, A. F. Pegram and W. A. Boytor, are former prominent European florists, and their advent into this community is quite a boost for Van Nuys.

A five-acre tract of land has been purchased by the men, who have set out 125,000 aster plants on it. They will expect to gather over 700,000 flowers from these plants.

Community Gathering

The Chamber of Commerce of Van Nuys is planning on conducting a big community gathering and carnival on Monday night, July 25. Band concerts, speeches and other attractions will feature the event.

Norma Talmadge for Palace Grand Feature

That Norma Talmadge is the finest emotional actress on the American screen today is clearly demonstrated by her latest starring vehicle, "The Passion Flower," by Jacinto Benavente, Spain's greatest living dramatist, which opened an engagement at the Palace Grand Theatre last night.

As the entrancing and temperamental "Acacia" of this absorbing and colorful story of Casellian peasant life, the beautiful Norma is most alluring and rises to great histrionic achievement for this scintillating star.

On the stage Nance O'Neil took the part of "Raimunda," the mother, while in the screen version Miss Talmadge, as "Acacia," has created a most fascinating role as the daughter. The star is ably supported by two leading men, with Courtenay Foote playing the part of Esteban, the stepfather, and Harrison Ford as Norbert, the poet.

Herbert Brenon directed "The Passion Flower," which is an Associated First National release.

Man Is Condemned by Bones of His Father

By CHARLES EDWARD HOGUE

SHANGHAI—Condemned to death on the mute testimony of the skeleton of his step-father, Chang Kang-zu is at the arsenal here today awaiting execution by a firing squad. The man's trial involved the revival of an ancient Chinese superstition that led to his confession of guilt.

It has long been the belief of the Chinese that the body of a person who has been poisoned will not decompose after burial. Also that when the flesh has been removed and the skeleton of a poison victim is boiled the bones will show a discoloration indicating the manner of death.

Chang was accused of poisoning his step-father thirteen months ago. He denied the charge and the authorities ordered the body exhumed. After thirteen months burial the body was in a state of perfect preservation. Chinese sages were called into consultation, the skeleton was removed from the flesh and boiled. It turned a bluish black.

The skeleton was carefully arranged in normal position and Chang was called in to view it. When he saw the color of the bones he broke down and confessed.

While Chang was being led to the arsenal the bones of his father, carefully arranged as in life, were placed in a coffin and returned to their grave in Pootung.

LIFE'S HANDICAP

"There are certainly more marriages than there used to be."

The speaker was Gen. Charles O. Dawes. He went on:

"These marriages may be brought about by the more becoming way girls dress nowadays. Or they may be brought about by the greater camaraderie that now exists between sexes. Anyhow—"

Gen. Dawes smiled. "Anyhow," he resumed, "a very intelligent old maid said to me the other day:

"When I was a girl I was taught that young people oughtn't to kiss until they were engaged."

Then she sighed and added: "I suppose that is why I never got engaged myself."

PLACE LIMIT UPON ARMAMENTS, IS STIRRING PLEA

Congressman Lineberger, in Address in House, Urges
United States to Act

Declaring that the time was now ripe for an international agreement limiting the armaments of the nations, and that the tar-burdened people were clamoring for it, Representative Walter F. Lineberger, of the Ninth Congressional district, which includes Glendale, in a stirring plea to Congress, asked the United States to take the lead in this great humanitarian movement.

Congressman Lineberger is well qualified to speak on the horrors of war, having taken an active part in the great world conflict. He enlisted as a private but before peace was declared had won his commission as a major. He was gassed and wounded in action.

"Paths to glory lead but to the grave and God forbid that this beloved Nation of ours refuse to recognize the lessons of history," said Representative Lineberger.

"World conditions are propitious and the time is now ripe, override, by international agreement to limit armaments, which are the implements of war, and thus to restrict war. This is no Utopian dream if we will but fulfill our obligations and take steps to call a conference before the existing psychological moment has passed.

Taxpayers Cry Out

"The burdened taxpayers cry out against the cost and preparations for war; the mothers and wives that are and are to be lifted their hands toward heaven in divine supplication that they may be spared its horrors and sacrifices; the hallowed dead that lie in Flanders field, who gave their all and died to end all war, sleep in silence but 'to rise and in solemn requiem chant to remind us of our duty to do all in our power to see that a similar holocaust does not again overtake mankind; to these are added the voice of the living, the visible human debris of the conflict, the scarred and maimed veterans in the hospitals throughout the land, bearing as they do physical and mental evidence of the hell of war through which they have passed.

Earns Right to Speak

"Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, the conditions to which I refer are not in the least overdrawn. I assure you, for if you will pardon the personal reference, I will say that in the dire days of 1917 and 1918 it was my great privilege to humbly serve, as did thousands of other American citizens, on the battle fields of France, and in so doing I believe I have acquired the right to say that I know whereof I speak.

"Only recently the president of the United States, in New York, standing uncovered and with bowed head in the presence of the last mortal remains of 5,000 of our heroic dead just returned from the crimson-soaked fields of France said, 'It must not happen again,' and his words were echoed in millions of hearts from the Atlantic to the Pacific and beyond the seas.

"America needs but to turn her own history to find guarantees of peace full and effective enough to have the most practical bearing on the extent of armaments, and fate—no; I will say a providential destiny—has brought to America the responsibility of being the strongest among the armament competitors left by the world war."

Quotes From Records

Citing statistics from the records of European nations to show that large armies and navies were not insurance against war, but, on the contrary, in many cases were an incentive. Representative Lineberger concluded:

"This nation has ever been in the forefront in blazing new trails, and the American congress, guided and inspired by the American people and under the able leadership of one of the most distinguished presidents who ever sat in the White House, should here and now covenant, in the presence of the Almighty—to whom after all we owe the highest responsibility—to commit and dedicate itself to the high and worthy purpose, through association and agreement, to limit armaments and to give a living expression to the spirit of Him who nearly 2,000 years ago enjoined that there be 'Peace on earth and good will toward men.'"

Line of Accessories and Auto Equipment

The Glendale Vulcanizing company under the direction of W. G. Lyman and H. W. Lund has been so persistently successful that the owners have decided to meet the increased demands of the motorists of Glendale by adding a complete line of accessories and equipment. Any delay in arranging the accessory display will be due to the pressure of business in the vulcanizing department, but the store at 141 South Brand boulevard when completed will be the last word in modernity, the owners declare.

PICTURE EMPLOYEES OFFER TO REDUCE THEIR SALARIES

Harry R. Schenck of This City Tells of Plan at Universal
City Studios

Owing to the financial difficulties which are being faced by moving picture producers all over the country the employees of Universal City have decided to voluntarily offer to reduce their salaries ten per cent, according to Harry R. Schenck, production manager, living at 1143 East Elk avenue, Glendale.

"The employees of Universal City realize that the moving picture producers are having a hard row to hoe," stated Schenck. "Over a thousand moving picture houses in New York alone have been forced to close their doors during the past few months, owing to the fact that with the rapid fall of high wages people are no longer spending the money for amusements that they did formerly.

Hard to Sell Pictures

"With the falling off of patronage there is a corresponding decrease in the demand for productions, and it has been exceedingly difficult to sell pictures at any price. In fact, the country is greatly overstocked at the present time.

"When you take into consideration the enormous cost of filming a first-class picture, and remember that in many instances the producers have to hold it for six months or a year before disposing of it, you can realize just what they are up against financially."

Many other companies are only producing on a small scale until a readjustment of costs can be effected. It is thought in many quarters that this step will be followed by like action on the part of many other concerns. Studio employees are amongst the highest paid workers in the country.

Jap Labor, Hungry, Is Reported as Radical

By HENRY W. KINNEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOKYO—The Japanese laborer no longer enjoys the opportunity to make his voice felt, which was his during the golden days of the boom war years, when the supply of labor fell short of the demand. As the army of unemployed increases, the man with a job is willing to sing very small for fear that he may be dismissed. The result has been that whereas strikes recently were common, but very little is heard of such today.

On the other hand, the workmen, realizing their powerlessness, have grown bitter, and while the unions are losing in membership, owing largely to inability to pay even their modest dues, the organizations which survive are getting closer together and are becoming more radical in their views.

"The laborers are becoming more and more in favor of direct action," says M. Suzuki, the leader of the Japanese federation of labor. Personally Suzuki is against this, and as a result it is reported that he will soon cease to be the leader, while some one else who is more in harmony with the radical element, will take his place. The police are reporting their usual tactics of suppressing anti-capitalistic speech wherever it crops up. A recent meeting in Tokyo, wherein workmen attacked the moneyed classes and demanded their "rights," resulted in several arrests, and the leaders of the various labor societies are known to be closely watched.

In the meantime the laborers are getting closer together, making common cause in times of adversity. Thus the various associations of seamen of various classes recently formed a great union uniting the scattered organizations and it seems quite likely that the workmen will emerge from their period of adversity stronger and more determined than they ever were.

George Peters Places Another Gasoline Pump

In order to keep in stride with the rapidly-increasing tide of patronage at the Mission Supply station, George Peters, Jr., has installed a new, ten-gallon, visible gasoline pump with a storage capacity of 1100 gallons of Peunte gasoline. This facility is supplemented by three other pumps, two of which are used to supply Union and Mercury patrons.

Mr. Peters, who has been in business in Glendale five years, is planning other comprehensive improvements, including the paving of the entire supply station yard and when completed the establishment will rank with the most elaborate. An able aide to Mr. and Mrs. Peters in their growing business is Ray Moon, the well-known Ford expert.

COMPLETE COUNT OF TUJUNGA PEOPLE IS UNDER WAY

Volunteer Committee Busy on Task; First Dance Is Given by Legion

Mrs. Grace Maxwell, who is chairman of the volunteer enumerator committee of Tujunga, reports that the work of taking the census of the community is at last in progress.

A complete directory of all of the residents of the section will probably be in by the last of this week.

Discuss Incorporation

During the past week a number of prominent citizens of Tujunga have stated their opinions regarding the proposed incorporation of the city of Tujunga, and a veritable "word war" is in progress over the issue in that district.

Legion Post Gives Dance

The first of a series of three summer dances was given on Saturday night of last week by the Monte Vista Post of the American Legion, the affair taking place at the Legion hall in Tujunga.

The Legionnaires will give another dance on Saturday night of this week at La Crescenta, and their third one the following Saturday night at Tujunga.

Makes Good Showing

In the building statistics of southern California just given out it is seen that Eagle Rock stands well up in the list with $92,848 in June and $385,050 for the first half of 1921.

Inspector Is Appointed

The city of Eagle Rock has recently appointed J. F. Wright as building and plumbing inspector. The position was formerly held by the city clerk.

Mary Pickford Scores at Glendale Theatre

Mary Pickford, the eternal little girl, is with us once more in her brand new United Artists production, "Through the Back Door," which opened yesterday for a three-day run at the Glendale Theatre.

With all her cuteness, all her winsome and whimsical charm, Little Mary is shown depicting one of her famous child roles, the one characterization in which she will always reign supreme. Even more youthful and beautiful than ever is Mary Pickford in this picture. Her interpretation of the little girl part is more genuine and more convincing than anything she has ever done in the past. In the beginning of this feature she appears in rags, and in "glad rags" at the finish. Clad in wooden shoes and in the picturesque costume of a little Belgian miss, she clatters across the aluminum sheet straight to the hearts of those who watch her from the darkened depths of the seat-filled house.

In spite of the fact that one laughs much at this picture, there comes times when handkerchief is not amiss. Especially is this true when Mary as Little Jeanne Bodemere comes to America to make herself known to the mother who thinks her dead. Many are the obstacles that she surmounts before the mother finally learns that her little daughter is a servant in her own home. The scene that reveals this is undoubtedly one of the most touching that has ever been filmed.

Feminine Lure Fails to Fill Church Pews

OXFORD, England—Kinemas having failed to attract young men into the churches, the clergy are thinking of going back to the old, old way of enticing a man with a maid.

It has been remarked that nearly the whole of a church congregation today is composed of women, and with the object of luring young men into the straight and narrow way, a deep and subtle plan was mooted at the vestry meeting of St. Peter-le-Bailey, here.

"Fill up the two front rows of seats with pretty girls and that will mean more men in the back seats," it was suggested.

One London clergyman, indeed, confessed that he had already put the scheme into effect—but it had not worked out correctly. He had made a selection of the prettiest girls among his flock to make collections and show people to their seats. But instead of attracting young men inside the church, he found the only result was an assorted and impatient group of young men waiting outside the church to greet the girls as they made their exit. The pious little feminine quota also took to hurrying through the service and dashing out to meet their swains before the service was through.

A dust storm recently blew for thirty hours carrying Gobi Desert sand to Shanghai and far out to sea. Japanese liners arriving at Yokohama found it difficult navigating, owing to the heavy yellow cloud enveloping them. During the blow, Peking resembled a deserted city, for nobody ventured out except under stress of necessity.

England Worried Over Growth of U. S. Fleet

By LLOYD ALLEN

United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON—Freedom of the Seas—this is the toughest of today's problems between America and England, beside which all other questions are as nothing.

For one hundred years England and the United States have developed with different viewpoints regarding ethics of regulating and using the world's great trade routes in peacetime or in wartime.

Since America has built a great fleet of commerce carriers and at the same time is creating a strong navy, the question of co-operation with England in utilization of the Seven Seas has become of paramount importance.

Lloyd's Register shows the following startling comparison between the British pre-war and post-war merchant fleets:

British tonnage, 1914, 21,045,049; 1921, 20,582,652.

American tonnage, 1914, 5,368,194; 1921, 16,049,289.

These figures show America's rapid advance into the shipping business with the United States shipping board as the largest single operator in the history of the world.

British shipping circles have shown a disposition to carefully guard the great trade routes of the world and not encourage American entry into these expensively built-up connections that link the world's seaports.

Much resentment has been expressed in London regarding the Jones shipping act, which if put into full force would operate detrimentally against British interests, it is felt.

At the same time official and unofficial London watch with unflagging interest the growth of the American navy and there is a unanimous plea in the press for agreement limiting armaments, if possible.

Should agreement not materialize the newspapers warn England not to take second or third place among the world's great navies.

As a middle course between these two suggestions, a powerful section of the British press advocates an Anglo-American understanding, recognizing American and English common rights on the high seas. Some suggestion has been made that American naval supremacy shall be unquestioned in the Pacific, while British supremacy shall be paramount in the Atlantic.

British politicians utter serious warning against a British-American naval race in armaments, pointing out America's resources are too great for English competition. While there are firebrands agitating for strong action in this question, as in many other Anglo-American problems, there are, on the other hand mediating influences much stronger who are determined to reach agreements eminently satisfactory to both nations.

Casa Verdugo Church Holds Annual Outing

The annual picnic of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church was held on Saturday at Brookside park, nearly 100 children attending. A large truck and a number of machines were used in transporting the merry crowd and the baskets of lunch to the scene of festivities.

It was a fine day for swimming and the pool was well patronized. Tennis and other athletic sports were enjoyed also and the luncheon spread on tables that had been reserved for the party.

J. W. Cotton, Henry Olmstead and Mr. Tyler were the committee in charge and their efforts were well rewarded by the genuine good time enjoyed by both the children and grownups attending.
